Exceptional Faculty

Be championed and guided by passionate teachers who are experts in their fields. King Faculty are deeply committed to a personalized approach to teaching and learning. Over 81% of King Faculty hold advanced degrees. All King teachers participate in at least two Professional Growth and Development training sessions each year, ensuring teachers remain at the forefront of education practices.

Academic Excellence

Experience a challenging, PreK-Grade 12, college preparatory educational program. Immerse yourself deeply in STEM. Excel at reading analytically, writing clearly, thinking critically, and speaking thoughtfully. Design an independent study program or choose to graduate with a Certificate of Distinction. Our diploma distinctions include: STEM, Leadership, Global Studies, and World Languages.

“Every day I feel so lucky I am in a special place with people who help me to grow and want to see me succeed. The teachers really teach you the material and make sure you understand it.”

– Ellie, Grade 5

Personalized Approach to Teaching and Learning

Be known as an individual and as a learner. Our proprietary, comprehensive Student Learning Profile System deepens teachers' understanding of each student's interests, learning patterns, and personal goals, supporting student's development. Teachers contribute insights to and draw perspective from this shared Faculty database, infusing their lesson preparation with a thorough understanding and appreciation of each student.

“We are impressed by the detailed goals and strategies that the teacher showed to us in our teacher parent conference. It demonstrates the teacher's strong academic focus and rigorous approach.”

– Parent, Lower School

“It’s exciting how our approach to planning and teaching science, computer programming, and mathematics has evolved as we are utilizing skills across disciplines to better solve and address the problems facing our rapidly changing world.”

– Dr. Khiznichenko, Chair of Mathematics Department

“There is excellent communication and advice from the College Counseling Office. Since the early days, we were advised correctly and motivated to search in the right places.”

– Parent, Upper School

Culture of Integrity, Kindness, Perseverance, and Respect

Nurture excellence within a community inspired by the 4 King Virtues which help develop individual character and collective well being. Learn the skills and acceptance needed to succeed in a multicultural world. Discover the joy of service by participating in the King Cares Service Learning program.

Graduates Succeed in Top Colleges, Universities, and in Life

The College Counseling Office partners each Grade 9 student with a counselor who will guide their journey through a four-year developmental program that centers on discovering the most competitive match.

College counselors support students with:

- Shaping strategy to choose a curriculum and engage in extra-curricular activities
- Understanding the standardized testing timeline and strategy
- Visiting colleges
- Opportunities to meet 90+ college representatives who visit King each year
- Identifying a target list of colleges
- Developing a sophisticated application portfolio
- Making a final, thoughtful decision

“We learned the valuable lesson that with just a little effort, you can change lives.”

– Griffen, Grade 5

King Mission

King is dedicated to preparing its students to thrive in a rapidly changing world.

We provide an excellent, progressive education, grounded in the traditional disciplines of the arts and sciences, and committed to the nurturing of individual potential, and designed to promote critical thinking and reasoned reflection. Using rich and innovative methods, our Teachers facilitate each student's fullest academic and personal achievement. We champion the development of character, self-confidence, and talent through challenging intellectual, creative, athletic, leadership, and service opportunities.

King believes that individual accomplishment must go hand in hand with respect for others. Our culture of respect fosters collaboration as well as independence. We embrace human and cultural diversity. We value responsible citizenship.

King graduates are well equipped to succeed in college and to pursue lives of ongoing inquiry, learning, accomplishment, personal fulfillment and social responsibility.

King History

King School is the convergence of three distinct, independent schools – Low-Heywood, King, and Thomas – that, from the beginning, shared similar educational missions. Our respected predecessor schools provide the foundation that continues to be drawn upon today, fueling the deeply rooted, defining elements of our School: exceptional Faculty, academic excellence, personalized approach to teaching and learning, culture of integrity, kindness, perseverance, and respect, and graduates succeed in the top colleges and universities and in life.
