

Choosing a School for Your Child: Questions to Consider

Choosing a school that is the best match for your child and your family is an important and challenging process.

To help you evaluate your school options, we've created this handy list of 16 questions that you can reference to gather information on each school you are exploring.

Good luck finding the right school!

School Name: _____

Address: _____

Grades: _____

Admission Contact: _____

Phone: _____ Email _____

Admission Deadline: _____

Financial Aid Deadline: _____

Admission Requirements:

Overall

1. What are the school's top strengths?

2. How would you describe the students?

3. What is the school culture?

4. How does the school help new students join the school community?

KING
SCHOOL

Additional Opportunities

12. What opportunities for leadership does the school provide to students?

13. How does the school prepare students to think globally?

14. How does the school support students who excel in the areas of Arts or Athletics?

Tuition

15. How many families receive financial assistance? Who generally qualifies?

16. What does the tuition include?

www.kingschoolct.org

A co-ed college preparatory school educating PreK-Grade 12 students from 30 towns ...
Bedford | Darien | Greenwich | New Canaan | Norwalk | Pound Ridge | Stamford